Neighbours in the Landscape of Memory
The First Meeting of the Medieval and Early Modern Mnemonic Society

Friday 27th September 2019
Library of the Centre for Medieval Studies, Jílká 1, 1st floor

10:00 – 11:30
Kimberly Rivers - University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh
The Franciscan Johannes Sintram (d. 1450) as a scribe
Lucie Doležalová - Charles University in Prague
Crux of Telč (1434–1504) as a scribe

12:00 – 13:30
Andrea Torre - Scuola Normale Superiore of Pisa
The Good Neighbor. Words and Images in the ms. 3368 of the Sainte Genevieve Library in Paris

14:30 – 16:30
Juan José Morcillo Romero - University of Extremadura
Ragona’s Artificialis memoriae regulae and its tradition
Angelika Kemper - University of Klagenfurt
Teaching the art of memory. A case study on Jacobus Publicius
Luis Merino - University of Extremadura
Some considerations on Iacobi Publicii Ars memorie (MS London, BL, Add. 28805)

17:00 – 18:30
Sabine Scelbach - University of Klagenfurt
Millstätter Predigten, Petrus Berchorius, and Mechthild of Magdeburg – problematic neighborhoods in a Benedictine Library
Farkas Gábor Kiss - ELTE University, Budapest
Latin and vernacular in late medieval memory treatises

Saturday 28th September 2019
Library of the Centre for Medieval Studies, Jílká 1, 1st floor

10:30 – 12:30
Fiona Somerset - University of Connecticut
Satirizing Satire: Memory and Repetition

14:30 – 16:30
Marjorie Burghart - University of Lyon
Old Fiddle, Good Tune: Transmissions and Transformations of a Sermon through Time and Memory

Closing discussion

Further information: Lucie Doležalová lucie.dolezalova@ff.cuni.cz, phone: +420-605-758079