

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

FACULTY OF ARTS
Charles University

PRIMUS

- Conference Programme -

POWER IN NUMBERS THE ROLE OF THE RURAL POPULATION IN CHRISTIANISATION AND STATE FORMATION II.

Prague
11th - 13th May 2022

The conference is supported by the European Regional Development Fund-Project "Creativity and Adaptability as Conditions of the Success of Europe in an Interrelated World" (No. CZ.02.1.01/0.0/0.0/16_019/0000734) and affiliated with the programme of Charles University Progress Q07 'Centre for the Study of the Middle Ages'.

Wednesday 11 May

09.00 Registration and welcome

09.30–11.00 Panel 1

ANDREJ PLETERSKI, Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Ljubljana
The Churches and the Space of Political Power

ALEXANDR MUSIN, Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw (online)
Rural Population with Urban Culture: New Approaches for Chronological and Regional Differences of the Christianization of Eastern Europe

ROBERT ANTONÍN, University of Ostrava
Changes of Liturgical Practices in Czech Lands after the IVth Lateran Council. Between Norm and Reality

11.00 –11.30 Discussion

11.30–11.45 Tea/Coffee Break

11.45–12.45 Panel 2

TIBOR ÁKOS RÁCZ, Ferenczy Museum Centre, Szentendre
Settlement Networks and Religious Growth in 11-12th century Pest County (Hungary)

FLORIN MĂRGINEAN, National Museum of Transylvania's History, Cluj
Between the Local Power Centre and the Ecclesiastical Network. Living in Castrum Orod in the Árpád Age

12.45 –13.15 Discussion

13.15–14.30 Lunch break

14.30–15.30 Panel 3

LÁSZLÓ FERENCZI – MÁRIA VARGHA, Charles University, Prague
Historical Spatial Approaches to the Development of the Early Church Network. The Case Study of Veszprém County

MARTIN JANOVSÝ- MARTIN FAJTA, Charles University, Prague
Empowering the Voiceless – Preliminary results

15.30 –16.00 Discussion

16.00–16.15 Tea/Coffee Break

16.15–17.45 Panel 4

NIKOLINA ANTONIĆ, Independent Scholar, Zagreb
The Cistercian Estate at St Helen's in Samobor

DAVID KALHOUS, Masaryk University, Brno
JOSEF ŠRÁMEK, Museum of Eastern Bohemia in Hradec Králové
Connecting people: Monasteries in Přemyslid Bohemia

KAREN STARK, Central European University, Vienna
The Formation of the Regnum Marianum: The Place of the Virgin Mary in the Development of the Christian Kingdom of Hungary

17.45 –18.30 Discussion

19.00 - Joint gathering with the MERC conference

Thursday 12 May

09.00–10.30 Panel 5

PRZEMYSŁAW URBAŃCZYK, Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw
Burial practice in transition – sepulchral evidence of Christianization in the early Piast state

NINA GLIŃSKA, Jan Kochanowski University, Kielce
Pagans and Christians. Christianity in the Czech Kingdom and the Kingdom of Poland in the Middle Ages - an Archaeological Part of the Project

VIKTORIE JANOVSKÁ, Charles University, Prague
Spatial Analysis of Archaeological and Linguistic Data in Early Medieval northern Bavaria

10.30 –11.00 Discussion

11.00–11.15 Tea/Coffee Break

11.15–12.15 Panel 6

ANDREJ ALADZHOV, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, Sofia
The Pliska-type churches, the Great Basilica and their relation to the settlements in the Inner city of Pliska

EWA MOŹDZIOCH University of Opole, Poland - SŁAWOMIR MOŹDZIOCH, Polish Academy of Sciences, Wrocław - MONICA CHIOVARO, Soprintendenza per i Beni Culturali ed Ambientali di Palermo, Italy - MAREK KRAPIEC, AGH University of Science and Technology, Krakow, Poland
Between Palermo and Cefalu. The role of the first Norman monastic foundations in (re)Christianization of the island's rural population in the light of archaeological research in the Altavilla Milicia region

12.15 –12.45 Discussion

12.45–14.30 Lunch break

14.30–15.30 Panel 7

JERNEJ RIHTER, Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Ljubljana
The Last Early Medieval and First High Medieval Burials with Gravegoods from the Župna Cerkev in Kranj Cemetery (Slovenia) in the Light of Stratigraphy and Material Culture

PETAR PARVANOV, Central European University, Vienna
Whispers from the Grave: Early Medieval Prone Burials in the Necropolitics on the Middle and Lower Danube

15.30 –16.00 Discussion

16.00–16.15 Tea/Coffee Break

16.15–17.45 Panel 8

MARCIN DANIELEWSKI, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań
On the threshold of Christianity and the Church in Kuyavia in the 10th–12th centuries

ZSOLT CSÓK, National Museum of Transylvania's History, Cluj
Dynamics of an Early Medieval County Centre: The Satellite Parishes in 11th-12th c. Transylvania. A Case Study

ZUZANA HOFMANOVÁ, Masaryk University, Brno - Max Planck Institute for Evolutionary Anthropology, Leipzig
Addition of archaeogenetics to the study of rural church cemeteries: More than sum of the parts

17.45 –18.30 Discussion

Friday 13 May

10.00–13.00 Strategic planning meeting

13.00–14.00 Lunch break

14.00–18.00 IVO ŠTEFAN, Charles University, Prague
Comprehensive Overview of the Early Medieval Fortifications: the Example of Budeč

VENUE:

Library of the Department of Archaeology, Charles University
Celetná 20
Praha 1

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Mária Vargha
Department of Archaeology
Faculty of Arts, Charles University
maria.vargha@ff.cuni.cz, +420 773 233 990

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

