

EUROPEAN UNION
European Structural and Investment Funds
Operational Programme Research,
Development and Education

Georg Brandes's Impact on the Arts and Politics beyond Denmark

International online workshop on the processes within a community caused by migration in a broader sense – people, ideas, values

Mezinárodní on-line workshop projektu KREAS na téma procesy probíhající uvnitř konkrétního společenství působením migrací v širokém slova smyslu – lidí, myšlenek, hodnot

Workshop of authors contributing to a volume on the Danish literary critic Georg Brandes (1842–1927) tracing the use of Brandes's ideas in local literary debates or his direct impact on particular authors. The contributions focus on cultural exchange between Brandes and men and women of letters outside Denmark, exposing the vivid networks of cultural actors in literature and politics in various national contexts.

31 October 2022

13:00-15:00

Program

Presentations of the duration of a maximum of 10 minutes followed by a plenary discussion.

Invited speakers: Torben Jelsbak (University of Copenhagen), Martin Humpál (Charles University Prague), Monica Wenusch (University of Vienna), Chung To Au (The Education University of Hong Kong), Sylwia Schab (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań), Anita Soos (Eötvös Loránd University Budapest), Gabor Csúr (Eötvös Loránd University Budapest), Helena Březinová (Charles University Prague)

Kreativita a adaptabilita jako předpoklad úspěchu Evropy v propojeném světě
Reg. číslo: CZ.02.1.01/0.0/0.0/16_019/0000734